D. H. Christensen Re-elected and His Salary Placed at $4,800 a Year -Repairs to Schools.

At the regular session of the board of education last night the salaries of the city superintendent of schools, prinipal of the high school and principals of the elementary schools were in creased in keeping with the advances previously made among the teachers.

D. H. Christensen was re-elected city superintendent of schools by unanimous vote; but the matter of increasing his salary from $4,000 to $4,800 a year met with vigorous oppo-sition from Mr. Martin, Mr. Newman sition from Mr. Martin, Mr. Newman and Mr. Glauque from an economical and not a personal standpoint. After some debate and the failure to make the salary $4,500 on an amendment the $4,800 figure was finally passed.

When the proposed increase of salary for George A. Eaton, principal of the high school, came up for consideration, it was vigorously opposed by Mr. Martin and Mr. Newman, who insisted that Mr. Eaton's record did not merit a raise as he had not only been extravagant, but at times disobedient. His salary was finally raised, however.

His salary was finally raised, however from $3,000 to $3,600, on a vote of 6 to 3

KIMBALL FAMILY IN PLEASANT REUNION

Anniversary of Great Leader's Birth 109 Years Ago-Tributes to His Memory.

In celebration of the one hundred and ninth anniversary of the birth of Heber Chase Kimball, (which occurred at Sheldon, Vt., June 14, 1891), a large number of descendants of this highly respected 1847 ploneer met at Whitney hall at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and listened to an elaborate program pre-pared for the occasion. The hall was listened to an elaborate program pre-pared for the occasion. The hall was specially decorated. It proved to be one of the largest and one of the pleasantest family gatherings over held in Salt Lake City. There were present children of the departed chieftain, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, with husbands, wives and other dis-tant relatives and close friends. The program commenced at 2 o'clock and lasted well into the late afternoon.

with husbands, wives and other distant relatives and close friends.

The program commenced at 2 o'clock and lasted well into the late afternoon. The principal speechs were delivered the principal speechs were delivered by Gov. William Spry.

President Joseph F. Smith was to have been present and made an address hut was prevented by absence from the city. Bishop Orson F. Whitney, a grandson of President Kimball, read a letter found among the latter's papers, addressed to his children, leaving with them his forceful testimony and counseling them to lead upright, honorable lives. The song, "The Pioneers," written by Solomon F. Kimball, and sung by the temple choir was much enjoyed; as was also a piece for the piano, "Kathie," played and composed by Edward P. Kimball, and sung by the temple choir; opening prayer. President Angus M. Cannon; song, "Oh, Love Divine," Florence M. Dinwoodey; plano solo, "Barcarcoll Pacific," Alice S.
